This is the first office action for serial number 09/927,670, entitled Clipboard and Reading Stand With light and Drawers, filed on August 10, 2001.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-8, and 10-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fisherman 5,176,438. Fisherman discloses a base (22e and 22f), a support (14 and 22d and 22c), an adjuster (hinge attachment) including a stay arm (22a and 22b), a light (44), device for writing material (24), spring loaded clip (16) or page holder (16), a stalk (near 38 and 44a). The pivoted location of the stay arm (22a and 22b) allows for the support to be at different locations relative to the base. The stay arm is fixed at the base but pivoted for adjustment on the support via 22d and 22c. The stalk is telescoping. (See figure 6).

Claims 1-4, 8, 10, 14, 16, and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sinclair 4,892,334. Sinclair discloses a base (12), a support (14), a light (34), stalk (30) an adjuster (13), spring clip or page holder (16), first (20) and second (22) compartments. The adjuster which acts as a hinge which the user can selectively open and close relative the base as desired.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fisherman in view of Menaged 5,025,353. Fisherman discloses all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the pair of spaced apart spring loaded tabs. Menaged discloses a base (14), a support (26), an adjuster (24) being a hinge, a securing device being a spring clip (38; see column 4, lines 53ff) or in regards to claim 14 and 15 a page holder comprising a pair of spaced apart spring loaded tabs, a light (12), comprising a stalk (54; telescoping see claim 2) pivotably mounted (58) to the apparatus. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Fisherman to have included the spring loaded tabs as taught by Menaged as a better means of securing reading material to the apparatus.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 3632

Claim 18 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
